Background on the Commission

In 2002, a group of citizens calling themselves the El Cerrito Committee on Arts and Culture petitioned the El Cerrito City Council to establish an arts and culture commission. Their proposal included the idea of advising the Council on arts and culture within the City and collaboration with existing organizations within the community: “By establishing an art and culture commission the city of El Cerrito would be providing support and encouragement for the growth of all arts. We would be joining the greater Bay Area in dedicating our time and involvement to the promotion of arts, artists and varied arts programs that would enrich our community and enhance our city.” In 2003, the City Council created the Arts and Culture Commission (see next paragraph).

Legal Authority

El Cerrito’s Arts and Culture Commission was created in 2003 by Ordinance 2003-1 amending the El Cerrito Municipal Code (ECMC) Section 2.04.310. Through the establishment of this Commission, authority to create this Plan and other arts and cultural programs rests with the Arts and Culture Commission through the City Council, as well as recommendations for arts and cultural activities within the City.

In 2005, the City Council accepted the Arts and Culture Commission’s recommendation to pass and to create the Art in Public Places Program. Ordinance 2005-5 amending ECMC to include Chapter 13, Art in Public Places.

Public Art Criteria and Guidelines

When the City Council accepted the Commission’s recommendation and adopted the Art in Public Places ordinance in 2005, the Council found that:

- the experience of public art will make the City more livable and more visually stimulating and the public areas of buildings and their grounds more welcoming, and will create a deeper interaction with the places we visit and in which we work and live

- the incorporation of public art into private and public development will create a unique sense of community as well as public identity and enhance the visual and aesthetic quality of such developments

- the incorporation of public art and cultural programs in private and public development is in the public interest and enhances the general welfare of the persons living and working in the City of El Cerrito

- this program is consistent with the El Cerrito General Plan, which calls for implementing City beautification programs such as public art “…to make El Cerrito a more pleasant environment to live, work, and play.”

In 2007, the Arts and Culture Commission researched and developed a set of criteria that would serve as standards for public art within the City of El Cerrito. The Arts and Culture Commission (Commission) shall consider this public art criteria as it pertains to projects by/for:

- Art in Public Places Program including 1% for Public Art projects
- Commission programs and events
- Accepting donations and loans of public art

These standards are:

1. Quality: The work should be of the highest standard with regard to workmanship, materials, assembly, content, placement, and appropriateness in theme and character as determined by the Commission

2. Elements of Design: consideration should take into account that public art, in addition to meeting aesthetic requirements, also may serve as focal points, modifiers, definers of public spaces and/or creates identity within the public realm
3. Context/Style and Nature: Works of art must be compatible in scale, material, form, and content with their surroundings. Consideration should be given to the architectural, historical, geographical, and social/cultural context of the site. Works may be participatory in nature.

4. Diversity: The Arts in Public Places program should strive for diversity of style, scale, media, artists—including ethnicity and gender—and equitable distribution of artworks throughout the City.

5. Originality: edition of one or part of a limited edition

6. Conservation: consideration should be given to structural and surface integrity, permanence, and protection against theft, vandalism, weathering, excessive maintenance, and accessibility requirements.

7. Public Safety and Accessibility: Each work shall be evaluated to ensure that it does not present a hazard to public safety and complies with all applicable building codes and accessibility requirements.

8. Public Liability: artworks should be examined for unsafe conditions or factors that may bear on public liability.

9. Location: in addition to reviewing guidelines for public art criteria, the Commission should consider the criteria appropriate to the character of an area of the community in conjunction with other City departments.

Desired Sites/Facilities
As the City embarks on development of area specific projects, opportunities for public art thrive. Public art can be included in a single development project or part of a larger planned development. Artworks should be located in an area which is accessible to the public and allow for unrestrained viewing from a variety of vantage points. Sites may include urban gateways, vistas, public spaces and plazas, or other interior or exterior publicly accessible places. The Arts and Culture Commission will periodically review the appropriate places in the City for public art, such as:

- Civic Center Area
- Ohlone Greenway
- San Pablo Avenue
- Parks
• Commercial Districts:
  o Stockton
  o Fairmount
  o Central
  o Cerrito Theater block
  o Moeser Lane between San Pablo Avenue and Navellier
  o Del Norte Area
  o Areas that may be rezoned in the future

Existing City facilities
The inclusion of public art into current City facilities is encouraged, including:
  • Senior center
  • Library
  • Community center
  • City Hall
  • Recycling and Environmental Resource Center
  • Other public buildings

Schools
Working with WCCUSD, private schools and the community, the Commission will encourage the inclusion of public art in El Cerrito schools.

Future Facilities
The Commission will encourage development of new facilities to foster arts and culture, either stand alone or incorporated into planned facilities. The most desirable facilities would be centrally located and/or publicly accessible, with easy access to transportation (such as BART):
  • Art center
  • Performance space

Financial Resources

Funding Sources
Art in Public Places Program 1% for Public Art Funds:
The Art in Public Places ordinance (adopted by the City Council on December 5, 2005) established the Art in Public Places Program. ECMC Section 13.50.030 details the Program’s contribution requirements, known as the “1% for Public Art”. In summary, private and municipal developments with development costs of two hundred fifty thousand dollars or more shall devote an amount not less than one percent of such costs for acquisition and installation of public art on the development site, up to one hundred fifty thousand dollars. In lieu of acquisition and installation of public art on the development site, an owner or developer, at its discretion, may make an equal in-lieu contribution to the City’s Public Art Fund.

The program applies to:
1. commercial, industrial and municipal projects, and residential projects that create five or more residential units
2. An existing building that is remodeled with a construction value equal to or more than fifty percent of the replacement cost of the building shall be subject to the requirements of this section

All nonprofit agency and non-municipal governmental development shall be exempt from the requirements of this section. The City Council may exempt any municipal building. Please refer to ECMC for exceptions and other details.

Donations:
1. Donations made to the Public Art Fund will be expended in accordance with ECMC Chapter 13, Art in Public Places
2. Donations received by the Commission that are not made into the Public Art Fund will go into the City’s General Fund and may be expended by Commission using the same protocol as the Commissions’ annual budget

Grants, Sponsors etc:
The Commission may apply for grants or solicit sponsorships to offset the cost of a project, program or event.

Acquisition:
1. Acquisitions should be directed toward artworks of the highest quality
2. Acquisition of artworks into the City’s collection implies a commitment to the ongoing preservation, protection, maintenance, and display of the artworks for the public benefit
3. Acquisition of artworks whatever the source of funding should imply permanency within the City’s collection so long as physical integrity, identity and authenticity inherent in the work are retained and so long as the physical sites for the artworks remain intact

4. When possible, artworks should be acquired without restrictions as to future use and disposition

Asset Evaluation
1. The Commission considers arts and cultural assets that may include City-owned objects, locations, and structures

2. City arts and cultural assets will be inventoried and reviewed by the Commission on an annual basis to maintain and preserve the value of such assets

3. The Commission encourages/welcomes public participation in identifying the arts and cultural assets of El Cerrito

Note: It is outside the purview of this Commission to evaluate or give advice to either the Council or the public regarding identifying or preserving historical, architectural and cultural sites. However, the Commission encourages the City Council to identify and maintain a list of historical sites.

Decommissioning
The City of El Cerrito recognizes that the decommissioning of artwork must be handled with great care, as apprehension that public art might be disposed of to pay operating expenses or satisfy the trading desires of the City could discourage potential donors or artists. Moreover, haphazard decommissioning could cause irreparable harm to the City’s collection. The City of El Cerrito has a fiduciary obligation to maintain the collection for the benefit of its citizens.

The Commission’s intent in this regard is that future commissions keep in mind the long-term and historical value of assets instead of fashion, style or social convention. The City should hold the artwork as an asset, and balance what is kept as an asset as opposed to what is publicly displayed. If possible, the City should keep the work of art.

If artwork sustains damage, the Commission will endeavor to evaluate the possibility and cost of repairs and recommend restoration work if feasible. When artwork cannot be repaired or if repairs are deemed to be too costly, the Commission shall first offer to sell the artwork back to the artist at a value to be determined at that time; if the artist refuses, it will be up to the Commission to decide the final disposition of the artwork.

Relocation of Artworks
The Commission recognizes the relocation of artwork may be necessary from time to time. This relocation will be done with consideration for artists’ original intent for the work and the best interests of the community. All relocations of artworks will be reviewed and approved by the Commission.
